

CONFERENCE

Monday 24 January

Session times and locations will be confirmed on the BTME website and BIGGA app.

Session name	Page
Reimagining Princes	8
Organic matter management – what's new?	8
Turfgrass diseases – attack and defend!	9
How big should your course budget be? Using industry data to help your planning	9
How you can help nature on your golf course	9
What they didn't teach you at college	10
R&A Golf Course 2030 – Annual review	10
R&A Golf Course 2030 – Green standards	11
Creating a culture of trust	11
Managing greens with reduced fertiliser and irrigation	11

Tuesday 25 January

Session name	Page
Phosphite for turfgrass management	12
R&A Golf Course 2030 – Grass selection	12
Drone technology to assess plant health	13
The “ALL ONE” greenkeeping management philosophy	13
Putting green surface management	13
That didn't quite go to plan!	13
R&A Golf Course 2030 – Coastal management for a sustainable long-term future	14
A very muddy situation: managing problematic earthworms on golf courses without chemicals	14
Measuring sustainability, carbon balances and taking climate action at your golf course	15
R&A Golf Course 2030 – Greenkeeper profile and education	15

Wednesday 26 January

Session name	Page
What got me here, might not get me there...	16
Taking on the business of golf — the Stanedge Golf Club story	16
Commissioning, building or designing – running a safe project	16
Leatherjacket management for the United Kingdom: what works and what is rubbish?	17
Creating Ingrebourne Links Country Club	17
Pythium patch: a newly discovered disease of Poa annua putting greens	18
Less is more when you talk about clip rate	18
R&A Golf Course 2030 – ITM for parkland greens	18
Conservation on the golf course	18
R&A Golf Course 2030 – Water management	19
Life in the transition zone	19
Championship agronomy 2021 – our learnings	19